Visual Merchandising

At Kangan Institute, we bring together the latest in industry education with some of the world's finest professional salon brands to give our students a complete learning experience in hair and beauty. Our purpose-built professional training salon floor and faculty of experienced teachers provide a real work learning environment. What sets our graduates apart is the one-on-one attention that helps them develop expertise in skills required to complete a Certificate III in Hairdressing or a Diploma of Beauty Therapy and to be industry ready.

Build show-stopping and original window, in-store and wall displays for big brands in the retail industry with our specialised Diploma in Visual Merchandising. Visual merchandising students at Kangan Institute benefit from working in real life environments and undertaking study tours and work experience programs while studying.
