USQ's Bachelor of Creative Arts allows you to work independently and collaboratively throughout your studies to gain the vital professional knowledge associated with performance, exhibition, broadcast and film. The balance between intensive periods of studio practice, theory studies and personal reflection will prepare you for an exciting career as a professional artist and give you the tools for continuing your artistic development over a lifetime. Students can choose from four specialisations: Film, Television and Radio; Music; Theatre; Visual Arts.

- 1 USQ ArtsWorx performance, featuring Bachelor of Creative Arts (Music) students
- 2 USQ Hedda Gabler production with USQ Bachelor of Creative Arts students Katie-Jayne Olm, Trevor Vanstone and Myles Waddell
- 3 Rehearsing for the USQ ArtsWorx Shakespeare in the Park festival.
- 4 Bachelor of Creative Arts (Music) student performance
- 5 Film, Television and Radio students hone their filming techniques at USQ Springfield.
- 6 Bachelor of Creative Arts (Theatre) students in the Shakespeare in the Park festival
